

The Museum of Tolerance, New York invite you to our

Yom Hashoah Commemoration

SUNDAY
MAY 1, 2011

5:00PM SANDY RUBENSTEIN

6:30PM PERFORMANCE BY HAZAMIR TEEN CHOIR

MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE, NEW YORK

Sandy Rubenstein is a teacher at the Horace Mann School in New York and a Master Teacher with the USC Shoah Foundation – and the child of Holocaust survivors. Her father, Joseph Horn, 12 years old when the war began, passed away in 1999, three years after the publication of his memoir, Mark It With a Stone, the fulfillment of a life-long dream. Now, Mrs. Rubenstein relates her father's story, sharing excerpts from his book and interspersing video clips of her father speaking directly about his experiences from the Shoah Foundation's collection.

HaZamir/North Jersey is a 36 voice strong Jewish teen choir under the musical direction of Cantor Joel Caplan of Congregation Agudath Israel, Caldwell, New Jersey. HaZamir's repertoires ranges from liturgical music to songs from Israel's contemporary music scene and has performed for numerous synagogues and organizations in New Jersey, New York, New England, Southern California, and Israel; and have traveled to London and Madrid to foster the beginning of Jewish teen choirs there.

Museum of Tolerance New York | 226 East 42nd Street | New York, New York 10017

$20 Per Person

To RSVP: npoor@wiesenthal.com

MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE
NEW YORK
A SIMON WIESENTHAL CENTER MUSEUM